

JAMES YOUNG

ASSOCIATE CONSULTANT

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

James is an experienced professional. He has worked in the research sector, the Australian Public Service and the private sector: collaborating, presenting and facilitating learning. He approaches his work with an enthusiasm and passion that positively influences colleagues and clients.

Since 2000, he has had successful careers in:

- insect research (published and presented nationally and internationally)
- federal government policy, team management, innovation and training/facilitation
- private sector consulting and adult education: training, facilitation and career coaching.

James now specialises in facilitation, and adult education in human skills. He also coaches individuals in career strategy and change, assists teams develop practical preferred futures, facilitates meetings and collaboration events and guides professionals to become accomplished public speakers and facilitators.

Personally, James is generous with praise, quick to smile and always looks for the positives in a situation. He values learning from the past—applying lessons from history to solve new problems and innovate.

James' areas of specialisation include:

- Meeting and Planning Facilitation
- Futures Thinking based planning for teams and individuals
- Presentation and Facilitation Skills for small and large audiences
- Team Management and Leadership Skills
- Internal and External Communication skills (across sectors)

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor of Science (Invertebrate Zoology and Philosophy)
- Postgraduate Diploma in Environmental Studies
- Master of Science (Entomology)
- Diploma of Digital Photography
- Certificate IV in Training and Assessment
- Adult education and facilitation courses

CONTACT

Phone: 02 6282 9111

Email: icg@interactionconsulting.com.au

www.interactionconsulting.com.au

interact with us